Settlement Music School is the largest community-based school of the arts in the United States. It offers high quality music and dance instruction and related activities to 15,000 students of all abilities, ages, financial means and ethnic backgrounds each year on-site and through its outreach programs. Settlement is a vital force in the communities it serves, bringing together an enormous diversity of students and providing many opportunities otherwise unavailable to them. Settlement awards close to $2 million annually in aid.

A Philadelphia tradition, Rita's Italian Ices are made fresh daily and are available in more than 40 different flavors. Rita's Franchise Company, headquartered in Treviso, Pa., is the largest Italian Ice concept in the nation, currently operating in 17 states with more than 550 stores
